

BELLARMINE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS MEANINGFUL EXPERIENCES

At LMU, learning happens both inside and outside of the classroom!

Take advantage of these high-impact learning practices to deepen and enrich your college experience.

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH

When you get involved in research, you level up your education while developing skills that every employer needs.

ENGAGED LEARNING

In Engaged Learning (EL) classes, the world is your classroom. One class with an Engaged Learning core flag is required for graduation. Make it count by picking one that enriches your academic or professional interests.

GLOBAL LEARNING

When you study abroad, you gain the cross-cultural awareness you need to become an ethical leader and a global citizen.

ELECTIVES

Most BCLA students can take about 40 elective units. Electives allow you to explore areas of interest beyond your major or minor. You might even discover a new major or minor you want to pursue!

ADVISING

Students in BCLA have two advisors: a professional advisor and a faculty advisor. Both support and guide you in selecting classes and opportunities that complement your academic and career goals.

LEARNING COMMUNITIES

Learning communities create a personalized student experience by connecting you with faculty and peers in your area of interest. Some learning communities even live together!

INTERNSHIPS

Internships give you the chance to apply your academic learning to real world situations and workplaces. You can even earn academic credit!

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Explore new career paths by attending career fairs, connecting with alumni, taking a retreat, or learning about graduate programs. You can even get help with your resume!

ON-CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT

Further your professional development and build your employment experience without having to leave the bluff! Student Employment Services provides part-time employment, workshops, and services for students.

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

Stay connected, get involved, meet new people, experience new things, learn, and grow by getting involved on campus. The Student EXP is your virtual hub for all campus groups and events.
